OPENING SOON MERCADITO CHICAGO

Slated to open in River North in midsummer, Mercadito Chicago will mark the fourth location of the New-York-based chain. Spanish for "little market," the Mexican restaurant's menu will offer traditional and mango guacamole, six kinds of ceviche, and tacos stuffed with pork, shrimp, or beer-battered mahi mahi. With a maximum capacity of 120, the venue will house a tequila lounge that seats 35 and a lantern-lit communal table that can accommodate 14. (108 West Kinzie St., 312.329.9555)
